Who we are and what we do

Our office team:

Caroline Horne – Manager, handles our partnerships with Hodi, Bwafwano and CHEP and with major trusts and institutional donors. She also manages the office team.

Sabita Banerji - Communications & Supporter Relations Officer, manages our communications through publications, the media and the internet. She also supports community fundraising.

Helen Cox – Fundraising Officer, works with schools, universities, churches, companies and individuals involved in sporting events, challenges and other organised fundraising events.

Julie Grime - Fundraising Support Officer, supports all our fundraising activities.

Jemma Hayward - Administrative Assistant, plays a key role in administering donations, thanking donors and supporting the team.

Mandy West - Accountant (until July 2009), was our accountant from 2006 and helped to develop our accounting system as we grew.

Anne Palmer - Accountant (joined in June 2009), qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1986. Since then she has worked for a number of international companies.

Our Volunteers:

We are very grateful to the many people who have given freely of their time to assist Cecily's Fund. We are particularly thankful to Catherine Latsis who regularly helps with a range of fundraising and administrative tasks. We also thank all the volunteers who tirelessly raise funds for us in the UK, Switzerland and the USA.

Our trustees:

William Powlett Smith (Chairman) is a Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland, and recently retired as a partner in Ernst & Young LLP. He was formerly Cecily's Fund's Treasurer, and took over as Chairman in January 2009.

Andrew Tacon (Treasurer) is a chartered accountant with Grant Thornton's corporate finance advisory team. He took over from William Powlett Smith as Treasurer in May 2009.

Philippa Eastwood (Secretary), Cecily's younger sister, is a criminal defence barrister in London. She oversees our programme with Bwafwano.

Jessica Boyd, a close friend of Cecily, completed a doctorate in Philosophy at Princeton and is now a barrister in London. She oversees our primary and secondary education programme with Hodi.

Tanya Chikanza is a director of Smith's Corporate Advisory and a churchwarden of St Margaret's, Lothbury, London.

Alison Eastwood, Cecily's mother and co-founder of Cecily's Fund, leads on key fundraising events, including the annual charity opera.

John Fox, a retired health education teacher, frequently visits Zambia and gives inspiring talks about our work to schools, churches and community groups.

David Lines is Manager of Business Development and Shared Service at Oxfordshire County Council and leads for the trustees on our business planning.

Janet Machin is a retired trainer of teachers and has experience in Africa and the UK. She oversees our peer health education and teacher training programmes.

Judy Moody-Stuart, Cecily's godmother, is also trustee of Quaker Social Action and the Asian University for Women. She leads for Cecily's Fund trustees on governance issues.

Veronica Oakeshott, Cecily's cousin, is Co-ordinator of the UK All Party Parliamentary Group on AIDS.

Sheila Phillips is the Accountant for the Oxford Centre for Hebrew and Jewish Studies.

Corinna Witt has many years of experience in internet marketing and provides invaluable support for our successful website.

Our patrons:

Lord Carey of Clifton and Lady Carey.

George Carey was Archbishop of Canterbury until 2002. His wife, Eileen, and he are passionately committed to supporting activities which combat the impact of HIV.

Peter Hinchcliffe is a university teacher and writer. He is a former diplomat and was British High Commissioner to Zambia from 1990 to 1993.

Sixtus Mulenga is a member of the World Bank's advisory panel on mining, and Chair of the Zambian group of the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative.

Our International Advisory Panel

Basil Eastwood, Cecily's father and co-founder of Cecily's Fund, was British Ambassador to Switzerland and, before that, Syria. He was a trustee of Cecily's Fund and Chairman until January 2009. In April 2009 trustees appointed him Chairman of the International Advisory Panel; a group of people in Zambia and around the world with experience that can help inform our work and expand our network of supporters.

Our Supporting Organisations:

American Friends of Cecily's Fund (AFCF) and Swiss Friends of Cecily's Fund (SFCF) raise funds in their respective countries to support our work. Each organisation produces separate accounts and annual reports.

AFCF - Senator Wyche Fowler (Patron), Greg Eckersley (President), Sue Skaf (Development officer and Director), Philippa Eastwood, (Secretary), Jessica Boyd (Treasurer), H. Clay Black, Basil Eastwood, Christina Hunt, Jessica Moulton and Richard Fursland (Directors).

SFCF - Jennifer Hockley (official Bern representative).

"Edina" doing the dishes. She also collects water for the family and she and her young sister sell vegetables in the market when their grandmother, with whom they live, is too ill to work. Edina goes to Bwafwano's community school where the teachers, school materials and lunch for all the children are covered by Cecily's Fund.
